Kitchen Troubles and the Remedy.

Only a few years ago it was considered good form to encase the sink in wood thereby concealing the trap, making it inaccessible and offering a place for the collection of filth and vermin.

If this condition exists in your household, let us remedy the trouble by installing a snowy white "Standard" Porcelain Enameled Kitchen Sink. Our work is satisfactory and prices right.

NORWAY'S ABLE PREMIER.

Peter C. H. K. Michelsen, Leading Spirit in Norway's Secession.
Peter Christian Hersleb Kjerfve Michelsen, who was the most conspicuous figure in Norway's recent secession from the Swedish-Norwegian union, succeeded Hagerup as prime minister not long ago. Despite the request of Norway, King Oscar refused to name a prince of the house of Bernadotte as king of the seceding nation, and Michelsen as head of the provisional government is practically the chief executive of the Land of the Midnight Sun. Premier Michelsen is a native of Bergen, in which city his father was a leading steamship magnate for many years. Young Michelsen was educated at the University of Christiania, became a practicing lawyer and soon reached eminence.

Later he succeeded his father as the head of important maritime interests, was elected to the storting and became conspicuous in politics. Like many other Norwegians of prominence he believed that Norway's interests were constantly discriminated against in favor of those of Sweden, and he was heartily in favor of the establishment of separate consular services for the two countries. When it became known that King Oscar of Sweden would not sanction such a procedure, Premier Michelsen was one of the first Norwegian statesmen to propose dissolving the union between Norway and Sweden, which had existed for nearly a century.

WANT IMMEDIATE ARMISTICE.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—The publication of the Imperial manifesto summoning representatives of the people to the national assembly was not made up to this hour, although the entire force of employees in the senate printing office is on duty.
